Naples, July 5.

THEIR Majesties and the Royal Family continue to enjoy perfect Health at Portici, where they propose staying till the 9th Instant, when they intend coming to this City, in order to reside here during the Fair, the Opening of which is fixed for the 10th. The Differences which have lately arisen between this Court and that of Rome, on Occasion of the Pope's refusing to admit some Incumbents to resign their Benefices, reserving to themselves certain Pensions, is upon the Point of being amicably adjusted to their mutual Satisfaction. A few Days ago Seven of the Banditti, who have lately infested the Roads in this Kingdom, were brought here and committed to Prison; they were taken in the Neighbourhood of Capoua by a Detachment of Soldiers from the Garrison of that Place. We have received Advice, that a Maltese Ship, with Fourscore Hands on Board, having been attacked off the Island of Rhodes by two Tripolitan Corsairs, had been taken by them after an obstinate Engagement.

Rome, July 10. On the 28th past, being the Eve of the Feast of St. Peter and Paul, the Pope went with a very great Retinue from his Palace of the Quirinal to the Church of the Vaticans, and heard the first Vespers, at which assisted twenty-four Cardinals, and a great Number of Archbishops, Bishops, and other Prelates. After which he received, from the Hands of the Constable Colonna, the annual Present from the King of Naples. The next Day the Pope, accompanied by most of the Members of the Sacred College, went again to the Vatican Church, and officiated Pontifically at High Mass, during which divers Discharges were made from the Castle of St. Angelo; and at Night there were Illuminations throughout the City, and a fine Firework played off at the Farnese Palace. The famous M. Dumenil, Bishop of Volterre, whom the Pope has caused to be twice shut up in the Castle of St. Angelo, on Account of a Disorder in his Mind, has at last consented to resign that Bishoprick; so that 'tis expected he will soon be set at Liberty, and have a handsome Pension settled on him. On the 30th two young Men, who had been convicted by the Tribunal of the Inquisition, of having publickly blasphemed the Name and Word of God, were severely whipped by the Hands of the Common Hangman, and afterwards sent to Civita Vecchia to work in the Gallies, as Slaves for Life. The Duke de Nivernois, the French Ambassador, made his publick Entry into this City on the 4th Instant with all possible Magnificence, and was immediately afterwards admitted to a private Audience of the Pope.

Stockholm, July 14. The King continues doing all in his Power towards repairing the Damages done by the late Fires. There is hardly a Day passes that his Majesty does not visit the Workmen, and is often making them handsome Presents to encourge them to be diligent. The Baron de Franckenbourg, whom the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel sent hither to compliment their Majesties on their Advancement to the Throne of this Kingdom, had his Audience of Leave last Wednesday, and set out the Day following on his Return Home.

Copenhagen, July 15. The little Squadron that put to Sea some Time ago from this Port, as was believed for the Mediterranean, is now said to have steered its Course towards the North; and as the Ships were double manned, and had Implements of all Sorts on board, many Persons are of Opinion that they are gone to make some new Settlement in that Country. The College of Œconomy and Commerce have agreed on a Plan for establishing a Society for the Encouragement of poor People to marry, by which the Widows and Orphans of such Persons who have it not in their Power to leave them wherewithal to subsist on, are to have Pensions allowed them; the Widows for Life, and the Orphans till they arrive to the Age of 25 Years. This Plan likewise provides for such poor old Men and Women as are turned of 60 Years of Age, who are incapable of getting a Livelihood, and have nothing to subsist on; as also for poor Men worn out in the King's Service. The Fund for carrying this Plan into Execution, provided his Majesty approves of it, before whom 'tis now laid for his Approbation, is to be raised by Way of Lottery, to which great Numbers have already subscribed.

Dresden,

Dreſden, July 16. On Saturday laſt there was a grand Appearance at Court of the Nobility and Gentry on Occaſion of its being the Feaſt of St. Amelia, of which the Empreſs Dowager of Charles the VIIth, and the Queen of the Two Sicilies, their Majeſty's eldeſt Daughter, bear the Name. A few Days ago M. Droſſel, heretofore Lieutenant Colonel, was promoted to the Rank of Colonel; Major Vennigſen, to the Rank of Lieutenant Colonel; and the Captains Maltitz and Pfortde, to that of Majors, all in the Regiment of Foot of Frankenberg. His Majeſty has appointed M. Wilke to be one of his Chamberlains. On Wedneſday Night laſt Field Marſhal Count Lowendahl arrived here from Poland. The next Day he was preſented to their Majeſties, and the reſt of the Royal Family, and met with a gracious Reception. It is ſaid he propoſes ſtaying here till the End of next Week, and then to ſet out for Paris. They are marking out a Camp in the Neighbourhood of this City, where the Regiments of Foot here in Garriſon, and ſome Squadrons of Horſe, are to aſſemble the Beginning of next Month, in order to perform, before the King and the whole Court, the new Exerciſe which has lately been introduced amongſt them. Prince Albert is perfectly recovered from his late Indiſpoſition, and is to accompany their Majeſties in the Journey they propoſe taking to Weiſſenfelds and Merſebourg.

Vienna, July 17. The States of the Kingdom of Hungary, who are now aſſembled at Preſbourg, are to ſeparate on the 26th Inſtant; and the next Day the Court will ſet out from thence for the Camp at Peſt, where all the Troops are already aſſembled under the Command of Field Marſhal Prince Lichtenſtein. 'Tis ſaid that the Difficulties which have hitherto retarded divers Electors and Princes of the Empire from receiving the Inveſtiture of their ſeveral Eſtates from the Hands of the Emperor, are at length removed; and that, in Conſequence thereof, an Ambaſſador from one of the greateſt amongſt them is ſhortly expected here. A great Number of Families have lately paſſed through this City from divers Parts of the Empire, in order to ſettle in Hungary. On Tueſday laſt died here Count Ferdinand Kollowrath, one of their Imperial Majeſties Privy Counſellors, in the 69th Year of his Age.

Berlin, July 20. Prince Henry is expected to return to Potzdam towards the End of this Month from the Tour he is taking to divers Courts in the Empire. The King's Journey to Sileſia is not abſolutely determined, at leaſt no Preparations are as yet making for it. His Majeſty having reſolved to build a new Quarter at Potzdam, for the Reception of ſuch Strangers as ſhall come to reſide there, has cauſed ſeveral different Plans to be drawn and laid before him for that Purpoſe. Lieutenant General Prince Maurice of Anhalt Deſſau, who went ſome Days ago to wait on the King at Potzdam, returned hither on Sunday Night, and the next Morning ſet out to join his Regiment at Stargard.

Paris, July 23. Their Majeſties continue to enjoy perfect Health at Compeigne; and, notwithſtanding the exceſſive hot Weather they have there, take every Day either the Diverſion of Hunting or the Exerciſe of Walking. Yeſterday the Dauphin arrived there from Verſailles, in order to aſſiſt at a grand hunting Match they are to have To-morrow in that Neighbourhood. The Dauphineſs is now very far advanced in her Pregnancy; and as 'tis imagined ſhe may be brought to Bed towards the End of next Month, or the Beginning of September, the Magiſtrates of this City have already given Orders for preparing ſeveral Sorts of Fireworks which are to be play'd off on that Occaſion. On Tueſday laſt the Corps of the late M. Pignatelli, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, who died of an Inflammation in his Bowels after two Days Illneſs, was interred with great Funeral Pomp, all the great Officers of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Houſehold, the Miniſters of State, and the principal Perſons of Diſtinction that are here, aſſiſted at it. The Chevalier d'Aldecoa, Secretary to that Embaſſage, ſtands charged with the Affairs of that Court till his Catholick Majeſty appoints a new Ambaſſador to reſide here in the Room of M. Pignatelli.

Delft, July 24. On Thurſday Night laſt an Expreſs arrived here with Advice, that one of our Eaſt-India Ships, named the Overſchia, was ſafely arrived from Bengall in the Road of Helvoetſluys, where ſhe had caſt Anchor.

Hague, July 27. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland, who were aſſembled on Friday laſt, are ſeparated for the preſent. M. Patras has taken his Seat in the Council of State, on the Part of the Province of Frizeland, in the room of the Baron d'Aylva, lately deceaſed. M. Balfour, and Count Hohenlohe, have taken the Oaths before the ſaid Council; the firſt as Lieutenant Colonel in the Regiment of the late Count Wartenſleben, and the other in the ſame Quality in that of Prince Waldeck. On Thurſday Night laſt the Right Honourable the Lord Holderneſs arrived here from London, accompanied by Count William Bentinck, and the next Morning waited on their Serene and Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Orange, who received him with great Marks of Diſtinction. 'Tis ſaid Lord Holderneſs will take Leave of their High Mightineſſes by a Memorial; and that he will ſet out on Sunday next on his Return to London. Don Joſeph de Sylva Pacanha, whom the King of Portugal named ſome Time ago to be his Miniſter at this Court, arrived here on Friday laſt from Liſbon; and 'tis ſaid will be admitted to an Audience of their High Mightineſſes on Thurſday next, in order to deliver his Credential Letters. Tomorrow their Serene and Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Orange intend honouring the Penſionary Steyn with their Preſence at Dinner, at his Country-Seat near Riſwick.

Leiceſter-Houſe, July 22.

This Day the young Princeſs was baptiſed by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Norwich, by the Name of Caroline Matilda; the Sponſors were, his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Caroline, repreſented by the Lady Viſcounteſs Irwin, and her Royal Highneſs the Lady Auguſta.
